Editorial

THE 1943 issue of THE OFFICIAL CATHOLIC DIRECTORY goes to press at a time in History which records the plunging of the entire world into the maelstrom of war through the inhuman acts of a few Godless leaders but, as always, Mother Church comes forward in this period of crisis and takes leadership in the dissemination of Faith, Hope and Charity to all.

As in every crisis faced by our nation, Catholics have again risen to the defense of their country in great numbers; although records have not been completed, it is estimated that thirty per cent of all men in our fighting forces are the Catholic youth of the U.S.A. Appreciating the spiritual requirements of this great number our Hierarchy, with care and diligence, has selected Catholic Priests to act as Chaplains; the untiring work of these Catholic Chaplains has instilled into our fighting forces the love, honor and respect of God.

At the request of the Government, the names of these Chaplains are given in this book without addresses and the MILITARY ORDINARIATE, pages 736 to 745, lists the great number of Catholic Priests who are serving with our armed forces. Their names also appear in the alphabetical list of Priests with mention of their Dioceses and the simple captions "U. S. Army Chaplain" or "U. S. Navy Chaplain."

The state of war has seriously affected the ordinary procedure of editing, typing and manufacturing this issue of THE DIRECTORY, with the consequent necessity of working under handicaps, and the Editor wishes to record with grateful appreciation the added help and assistance which has been unselfishly supplied by all of the different Diocesan Chancellors and the Provincials of our Religious Orders, without which kindly help it would have been impossible to present this volume.

Business Services for Subscribers

Appreciation must also be extended to the Advertisers in this issue, and particularly to those who continue although working under the handicaps of war restrictions. All without exception have shown the spirit of good will and without the revenue derived from this section of THE DIRECTORY, the cost per copy would be prohibitive. The advertisements have been carefully scrutinized to the end that all statements contained therein may be accepted with confidence.

Perusal of the current advertising pages now takes on double importance! It is suggested that you always consult the Classified Index and Buyers Guide (opposite) for your particular needs. Although the hundreds of headings cover practically every requirement, you may not find exactly what you are seeking, so use the convenient post cards facing the rear cover. Through their use our Service Department will endeavor to place you in touch with possible sources of supply, furnish addresses and serve you in every capacity within our power.

WARTIME WORDS TO FORWARD LOOKING PASTORS

"There are no atheists in foxholes. . ."

Was there ever a miniature sermon so rich with meaning and eloquent with truth?

Did ever a man succeed, in six simple words, in conveying so powerful a message to soldier and civilian alike?

When adversity comes to the human race, self-sufficiency disappears. Too often do men wait until then to acknowledge their dependency upon a Supreme Being. Too often do they deny themselves until too late the solace and understanding that lie in religion. . . .

Reflecting on these thoughts, it is natural that you should feel an overwhelming urge to carry the constant and continuing need for Christ into every troubled heart in your parish. And perhaps, like many another pastor, you recognize in a Golden-Voiced Deagan Carillon one means of attaining this aim—a means by which the compelling music of divinely inspired hymns might be conveyed to all the community.

Deagan Carillons are of course not now available. But some day they will be. Some day your boys will come marching home and life will resume its normal course. And on that day you will wish fervently for the one most appropriate method of commemorating the sacrifice of those who went away and the spirit of humility that came to those who stayed at home.

Would it not be a fine thing if the close of the war found you ready with both a Memorial Program and the funds with which to carry it into fulfillment? We have devised a plan to bring this about. May we send you interesting details?

BETTER HEATING

—Today and Tomorrow

For fifty years, America's best heated Catholic colleges, schools, hospitals and other institutional buildings have used steam as a heating medium—steam harnessed and brought under control with Webster Systems of Steam Heating.

Today, when excessive fuel consumption is not only wasteful but unpatriotic as well, the building equipped with a Webster Moderator System is assured of heating comfort with minimum fuel consumption. "Control-by-the-Weather" is provided by an Outdoor Thermostat, which automatically adjusts the basic rate of steam delivery with every change in outside temperature.

For Catholic leaders planning building construction or modernization both now and after the war, we have a book giving case studies of 268 modern steam heating installations. This guide-book to better heating with the Webster Moderator System gives proof of heating comfort, savings in dollars and cents. No exaggerated claims. No promises. Just 75 pages of heating results.

Keep Heating Repairs at a Minimum
. . . Save Critical Materials

STEAM Heats America—at war!

You can keep emergency heating system repairs at a minimum—and save critical materials for the war effort—by following the practical heating advice of Webster Engineers.

Take radiator traps, for example. To get better service and longer life from your present traps, make sure that working pressures are kept within the recommended minimum for the trap. Check trap interior at least once a year. Remove dirt and debris from trap body. See that valve seat is clean. (Do not unscrew or remove cap and operating element while trap is hot.)

For complete information on keeping steam heating systems in topnotch operating condition, ask for Webster Bulletin S-500E.

The cure and prevention of all leakage is of special importance in war times.

Damage caused by snow and rainstorms must be limited to the utmost extent, to avoid unnecessary employment of labor needed for war work.

There is only one sure way to make a leaking wall permanently weatherproof: Go to the root of the trouble, remove faulty mortar, and do a thorough job of repointing.

Call in the Rockwell* Newman Company's efficient organization now to protect your buildings against wall leakage.

We will gladly make an inspection and submit estimate without placing you under the slightest obligation.

New— A Mobile Acousti*-Confessional for extra convenience and privacy...

Most churches need one or more extra confessionals which can be brought into use during busy seasons of the year, yet are easily moved aside when not needed. The Burgess Acousti-Confessional has been developed specifically to meet this problem. The walls are of patented acoustic construction, providing greater privacy than is found in many permanent confessionals, while its attractive design harmonizes with church interiors. Standing only six feet high, it can be moved to a comfortable location when permanent confessionals are drafty or poorly ventilated.

A special acoustic grille in the center panel transmits the slightest whisper, yet prevents the passage of offensive odors. At the same time the users are assured maximum privacy.

The Acousti-Confessional is available in walnut stain finish or natural wood color. Two arm rests are provided, as well as a movable kneeler covered with wear-resistant material. We will be glad to send you a fully illustrated bulletin describing this confessional.

—for Permanent Confessionals, Burgess Acousti-Panels provide increased privacy for both confessor and penitent. These panels can be used to line the interior walls of existing confessionals, or as structural members when building new ones. This acoustic treatment provides unusual privacy of speech for both confessor and penitent. For further information, write Acoustic Division, Burgess Battery Company, 2821-D W. Roscoe St., Chicago, Illinois.

*Acousti-

Acousti-Confessionals and Acousti-Panels are of patented Burgess acoustic construction, with hollow walls filled with a thick layer of sound-absorbent material. The inside facing on these walls is perforated with thousands of tiny holes; voices and reflected sound pass through these holes and are absorbed. This patented construction results in an unusually high degree of privacy for users of Burgess Acousti-Confessionals.

HOW fortunate it is that one place is set aside from the noise and turmoil of the world at war—your church. Fortunate, too, that so many of America's beautiful church properties are guaranteed full seclusion and security by an enclosure of dignified fence. It keeps careless trespassers from doing harm—yet it permits everyone to see the full beauty of your buildings and landscaping.

Cyclone Fence has been the choice of hundreds of churches, schools and other institutions because it provides rugged, well-built fence that is entirely pleasing in appearance.

Of course, the vast amounts of steel needed in the war effort make it impossible to provide fence right now. But there is no harm in making plans—in getting recommendations and an estimate—without obligation. If you are considering fence for your property any time in the future—get the facts now about U·S·S Cyclone Fence. Send for our complimentary book that illustrates many types of fence. Remember, there's no obligation involved in an inquiry.

■ ■ ■ offers exceptional opportunity for fund-raising. More people are now enjoying increased incomes than at any time in the last decade. This suggests the wisdom of seeking funds now for current operating expenses, for the elimination of indebtedness or for later new construction.

For over twenty-five years, the firm of Ward, Wells & Dreshman has served the Church and its institutions in directing fund-raising campaigns in behalf of diocesan projects including schools, colleges, hospitals and the various parochial requirements.

We shall be pleased to explain the "War Bond Purchase Plan" and how it can be adapted to provide funds now to finance your program and at the same time help our Government win the war.

Regarding

AGNUS DEI TABERNACLES

In announcing the suspension of manufacture of AGNUS DEI Tabernacles for the duration, we wish first of all to express our appreciation for the patronage of the Reverend Hierarchy and Clergy, the architects and church goods dealers of the U. S. A., who have dealt with us during the past thirty-seven years.

We regret the necessity for this announcement, the reasons for which are readily understood. We are at War. While suspending entirely for the duration, we plan to resume within two weeks after conditions again permit us to proceed.

Both our own and dealers' stocks have been exhausted for months and no one should be able to offer genuine AGNUS DEI Tabernacles until Summit Studios again manufacture them.

Meanwhile, as we devote every effort to the further improvement of new models and designs, a most gratifying number of the Hierarchy and Clergy have already placed their orders for delivery when peace reigns.

These encouraging orders are for both standard and special designs. It is most essential, should you be planning to install AGNUS DEI Tabernacles on your own altars, that reservation be made now for early delivery; for some time after we resume production, preference must be given to such prior orders as received.

Please bear in mind that your reservation may be cancelled at any time and that all advance orders, delivery dates and prices will be confirmed by us before proceeding with manufacture when we can again do so.

Your correspondence in this regard is most cordially invited and all reservations will be carefully recorded. Our new address is Sparta, New Jersey, to which all communications concerning AGNUS DEI products should now be addressed.

Announcement

MY WORK for the past six years has been the manufacturing of E-Z Kneel Pads and rubber flooring for our Church exclusively. Rubber supplies for these items are now exhausted and nine of my boys are serving in our Armed Forces. My recent problem therefore has been, how may I continue to serve. Acquiring the Bernardini Studios with its enviable tradition for unexcelled craftsmanship for over Ninety-four years is the answer and I extend my sincere gratitude and thanks to the many friends of William Doig & Son and cordial greetings to the established clientele of Bernardini.

COMFORT AND ECONOMY MARCH SIDE BY SIDE

Edifices devoted to worship, education or healing are made consistently comfortable by Dunham Differential Heating. This heating system distributes only required heat units to offset heat losses whether the weather is bitter cold or mild and whether the building is a parish church, towering cathedral, great modern hospital or group of educational buildings. As a gauge of its economies, one group of 33 buildings made an average saving of 39.2% in fuel.

Are you CERTAIN that your church is properly, adequately and economically INSURED?

THE insurance needs of a church are far more complex than those of a house. There may even be a wide difference in the insurance needs of two churches in the same community. No one but an experienced insurance agent can be expected to know the many different types of insurance available and to properly "diagnose" a church's specific needs. Do you have enough fire insurance on your church? Are you carrying too much? Are you properly insured against those other common hazards that cause much property loss every year? What particular policies should you have for the rectory, the school, the convent?

Any "North America" Agent will be glad to sit down with you and make a thorough survey of your specific needs, tell you just which policies you should have, how much they will cost, which types of insurance you can afford to dispense with. The "North America" Agent in your community is always glad to give you the benefit of his experience and advice, with no obligation on your part. Consult him as you would your lawyer or doctor.

"North America" Agents may be found in the Classified Telephone Directories, under the name and identifying "Eagle" emblem of

HINTS AND HELPS

For those who use the Catholic Directory

The exact page location of the various sections of the Directory mentioned in this Foreword may be found by consulting the alphabetical index on page vii.

A Public Service

Each year the editors of the Official Catholic Directory seek new ways of being of service to those who support it. Although the time may never be reached when the book will contain all that it could possibly have to be absolutely perfect in this respect, it is a goal toward which we are constantly aiming. For after all, the Directory, in a broad sense, is no private enterprise carried on for purposes of personal profit. It is a work supported by its users as a public service and, as such, the format, arrangement and editorial features must be directed towards the convenience and needs of the public it is designed to serve. Nor does this policy stop with the editorial contents. The advertisements in the Directory are accepted by us with the user of the Directory in mind. It has always been our proud boast that our advertisers are selected rather than solicited. Before they appear in the Directory the editors have made certain that the potential consumer can safely place full confidence in their products.

With this dedication to the public good in mind and because of the many editorial features and changes constantly being made in the Directory we believe it wise this year to devote some space and time towards giving you a clearer, more comprehensive idea of what the Directory contains and how to use these contents to best advantage. First then, we list a short summary of the parts of the book after which we explain how they may be used.

What the Directory Contains

1. List of the Governing Bodies in Vatican City.
   This is a list of all of the officials, beginning with the Pope and continuing through the College of Cardinals. The duties of each of the Sacred Congregations and Offices together with its officials are given. A list of the National Colleges in Rome together with a chronological table of the Popes, complete the Section.

2. List of the Provinces of the United States.
   This is a list of all the Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States arranged under the provinces to which they belong. The names of all Archbishops and Bishops together with appointment and consecration dates are given.

3. Detailed Reports from Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States.
   This section, forming the largest part of the book, gives the most detailed information on the Catholic Church in the United States. Examples of its wealth of information will be given later.

4. Detailed Reports on U. S. Possessions and Those Parts of the World in which American Priests and Religious Labor in Missionary Work.
   This section contains substantially the same information on foreign territories as the preceding one.

5. Special Listing of the Organization and Personnel of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

6. General Statistics on Religious Orders of Men and Women.
   In this section each Religious Order lists the number of Provinces it maintains, the superiors of the Provinces, the number of various classes of religious in the province, the number and kind of institutions it serves or maintains and the Dioceses in which its members are working. It is preceded by an exhaustive cross index.

7. A special listing of those societies engaged in missionary work giving the nature of their work, the territories in which their members are engaged and the local boards in various cities which aid or support them.

8. A list of the cities, towns and villages in which there is located a church with a resident priest or a catholic institution, or both.

This section lists each city, the state in which it is located and the abbreviations of the Archdiocese or Diocese to which it belongs. A key to these abbreviations is given on a special page located between the alphabetical list of places and the alphabetical list of Bishops.

9. List of the Hierarchy of the United States alphabetically arranged, together with their addresses.

10. List of the Hierarchy of the United States arranged according to their seniority.

11. Alphabetical list of the Clergy, which includes all priests both Secular and those belonging to a Religious Order or Community.

This list gives the diocese to which the priest belongs, the city and street address or institution at which he now resides.

12. Necrology of the United States Hierarchy and Clergy

Here are listed alphabetically all those prelates and clergymen who have died since the last issue of the Directory. The address and diocese of each is given, together with the date of death.

13. A General Summary

This is a general recapitulation of the statistics of each Archdiocese and Diocese. Total numbers for the United States and its possessions are given.

How to Find Things . . .

All of these things the Directory contains—a wealth of names, statistics and relevant data such as few other books of reference encompass. It is indeed so much matter placed together in limited space that one may be excused a certain perplexity as to the quickest way to secure some particular point of information. A few pointers then, may not be amiss.

. . . About the General Plan . . .

Each of the Reports of the various Archdioceses and Dioceses are alike in so far as the general layout is concerned. There is first a list of Officials. Then the churches in the See city are given, alphabetically arranged. This is followed by a list of the Churches outside the city, alphabetically arranged according to towns. With each Church is listed the schools, missions and stations connected with it. Following this is a listing of the Institutions in the Diocese; first those in charge of Diocesan Clergy, then those in charge of Religious Orders. This last is further divided into Orders of Women and Orders of Men. In the larger Archdioceses, this order may vary in certain cases. After the Institutional listings, there are summaries of the Religious Orders of Men and the Religious Orders of Women in the Diocese, a Necrology listing those priests who have died during the year and, lastly, a Diocesan Recapitulation of Statistics.

. . . About Prelates . . .

Let us suppose you want to know something about a prelate. If you know his name the best place to look first is in the Alphabetical list of Bishops which immediately precedes the Alphabetical List of Priests. This will give his full name and address as well as the Diocese to which he belongs. Upon turning to the Diocese you will find, usually, the dates of his ordination, appointment, consecration as well as the dates of his transference in the event he served in any other Diocese. You will usually also find his secretary's name and address, a point of information sometimes very useful. If you want to know what place he would take in solemn procession, consult the Seniority list of Bishops which immediately follows the Alphabetical list.

. . . About Officials . . .

In the event you wished some information concerning Diocesan officials, the Superintendent of Schools, let us say, you will find it in the Administrative Officials section directly under the name of the Bishop in each Diocese. In most cases both home and office addresses are given. You will also discover the degrees which should follow his name in formal address. All of the officials connected with the governance of the Diocese are listed in this section. In the event that the address of the official you seek is not given, look him up in the Alphabetical List of Clergy.

. . . About Places . . . The place list of cities and towns in the United States tells you at a glance to just what diocese any particular one belongs. The cities and towns are arranged in strict alphabetical order and are followed by the abbreviation of the Diocese where located. When a town has no post office the correct mailing address or Post Office will be found in italics, immediately following the town desired, e.g. Reno, Iowa Cumberland P. O. DM. The Post Office address will also be found in its alphabetical position with the name of the town where the church or institution is located immediately following in Roman type, e.g. Cumberland, Iowa Reno DM. Different localities have particular ways of abbreviating Rural Free Delivery. You will encounter it as: R.F.D.; R.R.; R. A key to the Diocesan abbreviations used will be found conveniently placed between the alphabetical list of places and the alphabetical list of Bishops.

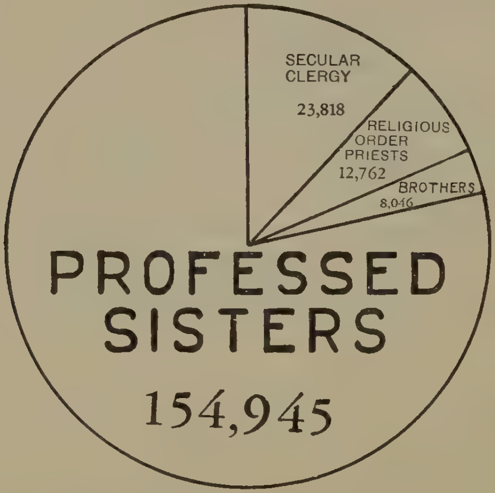
. . . About Statistics. . . If you are interested in securing statistical information you can find it in the individual Recapitulations at the end of each Archdiocese and Diocese. These Recapitulations give the number of Institutions and the number of people attending them for the entire Diocese. We have taken from these Recapitulations, those figures we consider to be most vital and summarized them in a general Recapitulation giving totals for the entire country. This will be found directly after the Clergy List and Necrology.

. . About Clergymen . . . If you know the clergyman's name, the fastest way to discover his address is to look in the clergy list. This will give you his Diocese and address. If there is a number in brackets in the listing, he is stationed at the Church bearing that number in the city and Diocese indicated. The numbers are inserted only for Churches in the larger cities having ten or more Churches. If you are not sure of his name but know the city or town he is in, look that up in the Alphabetical list of places. This will give you the Diocese.

. . About Religious Order Priests . . . Those priests belonging to Religious Orders are listed at the Churches and Institutions they serve. You will find at the end of each Diocesan report a list of the Religious Communities of Men active in that Diocese and a list of the Churches and Institutions at which they are stationed. If you should desire further information about any particular order you can consult the Index to Religious Orders which directs you to more detailed and comprehensive information concerning the order. Since many Religious Order priests are engaged in Missionary work outside the United States the abbreviation of that province of his order to which he belongs is given, as well as his mailing address.

. . . About Brothers . . . In the United States, as well as in other countries, there are men who, while not ordained priests, live in community in the same manner as Religious Order priests. Some of these men are attached to Religious Orders of priests while others have formed their own Religious Community. Thus, in the Society of Jesus, there are ordained priests and brothers. On the other hand the Brothers of the Christian Schools, for example, have no connection with any Religious Order priests. You will find immediately following the Statistics on Religious Orders of Priests a listing of the Orders of Brothers who are independent of Religious Orders of Priests. Those Brothers who belong to Religious Orders of Priests are listed with their Order in the section devoted to Religious Orders of Priests.

. . . About Nuns . . . There are 259 different Religious Communities of Women operating in the United States. To find general statistics on any particular one the first thing to consult is the Statistics of Religious Orders Section. Here you will find the number of Sisters, Postulants, Novices, etc. of each province, the number and kind of Institutions they maintain or serve and a listing of the Archdioceses and Dioceses in which they are represented. If you want to know, therefore, where the motherhouse of the nuns teaching at a certain school is located you have only to look the name up in the Religious Order Section. On the other hand, if you wish to know whether a certain order is represented at a certain school, you have only to consult the list of Religious Communities of Women in the Diocese,which you will find at the end of the report of each Archdiocese and Diocese. An analysis of the Statistics of Religious Orders section reveals that there are 154,945 Professed Sisters in the United States. These, in relation to the Priests and Brothers, might be shown graphically as follows:



These figures are from issue of 1942

The Complete Edition

As you probably know the Catholic Directory appears annually in three different forms. Volume One is the United States edition and contains information only on those Dioceses in the United States and its possessions. Volume Two is the Complete edition and contains everything in Volume One to which is added also Diocesan reports for Canada, Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, Cuba and Mexico. These reports, except for Cuba and Mexico, are similar to those for the United States. There is also a list of Places for Canada which may be used exactly as the United States Place List. Volume Three contains everything in Volumes One and Two and is very substantially bound in stiff cover with heavy imitation leather.

In this attempt to facilitate your use of the Directory we have tried to cover all the questions which may arise. However, we realize that there may be some special aspect, peculiar to your work, upon which we have not touched. If this is so, please feel free to call on us for further information. As we have said, the Directory is a work of Public Service. Each year refinements and improvements are added. With your cooperation there will be more of these in the future. It is your Directory and will, ultimately, take whatever form serves you best. Accordingly your corrections and suggestions are warmly welcomed.

PART I

Hierarchy of the Catholic Church

The Catholic Hierarchy, or the governing body of the Catholic Church, consists of His Holiness the Supreme Pontiff, assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals and by several Sacred Congregations, or permanent ecclesiastical committees, of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Nuncios and Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and other Prelates.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE
BISHOP OF ROME AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES, SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.
PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY.
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF VATICAN CITY.

PIUS XII

EUGENIO PACELLI
NOW GLORIOUSLY REIGNING

The two hundred and sixty-first successor of St. Peter was born in Rome, March 2, 1876; ordained Priest, April 2, 1899; appointed Apostolic Nuncio to Bavaria, and promoted to the Titular See of Sardes, April 23, 1917; consecrated Archbishop by Pope Benedict XV, May 13, 1917; Apostolic Nuncio to Germany, June 22, 1920. Created and proclaimed Cardinal, December 16, 1929. Appointed Secretary of State, February 7, 1930. Elected Pope, March 2, 1939, crowned March 12, 1939.

VATICAN CITY

By virtue of the concordat signed by His Eminence, Peter Cardinal Gasparri, acting for the Pope, and Benito Mussolini, Premier of Italy, for the King, on February 11, 1929, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, ratifications of which by the Pope and the King of Italy were exchanged on June 7, the Feast of the Sacred Heart, the complete and independent authority of the Pope to rule in his own possessions was recognized by the State. The territorial possessions of the Holy Father are called Vatican City and within its limits the Sovereign Pontiff's authority is recognized as supreme.

The Sovereign of this small state is His Holiness, the Pope.

The Governor is Marquis Commendatore Camillo Serafini, born in Rome in 1864.

The Apostolic Nuncio to the King of Italy is Monsignor Borgongini Duca, Titular Archbishop of Heraclea.

The Ambassador of Italy to the Vatican City is His Excellency Count Galeazzo Ciano.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy. With very few exceptions, the Cardinal Priests are Archbishops or Bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are Priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons.

The Cardinal Bishops take their title from the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are: Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Palestrina; Sabina, Frascati, Velletri. The Cardinal Dean has united to his See the See of Ostia. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed: the Cardinal Deacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconies." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The "creation" of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, the "publication and proclamation." The Cardinal is then said to be "reserved in petto," and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

ARCHDIOCESES OF BALTIMORE AND WASHINGTON

(Archidioecesis Baltimorensis-Washingtonensis)

BALTIMORE ESTABLISHED A DIOCESE Nov. 6, 1789; ARCHDIOCESE APRIL 8, 1808. Square Miles = 6399.

Comprises the City of Baltimore and all the Counties of Maryland lying west of the Chesapeake Bay.

By a Decree of the Sacred Congregation of the Propaganda, July 19, 1858, approved by His Holiness, Pius IX, July 25, 1858, "Prerogative of Place" was conferred on the Archdiocese of Baltimore. By the explicit words of said decree of the Holy See the Archbishop of Baltimore takes precedence over all Archbishops of the United States (not Cardinals) in Councils, gatherings and meetings of whatever kind of the Hierarchy (in concillis, coetibus et comitiis quibuscumque) regardless of the seniority of other Archbishops in promotion or ordination. Decree signed by Cardinal Barnabo, August 15, 1858.

WASHINGTON ESTABLISHED ARCHDIOCESE July 22, 1939. Square Miles = 64.

Comprises the District of Columbia.

In virtue of an Apostolic Letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, dated July 22, 1939, the territory of the District of Columbia was separated from the Archdiocese of Baltimore and raised to the dignity of an Archdiocese in its own right to be known as the Archdiocese of Washington. Without prejudice to the prerogative of place enjoyed by the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the Archdiocese of Washington is united with it aeque principaliter. Both Archdioceses are under the jurisdiction of one Ordinary and there is but one Archiepiscopal Curia.
